Outcomes Health Information Solutions Opens New Center in Albuquerque, NM

Albuquerque, NM (April 5, 2010) -- Outcomes Health Information Solutions, LLC, a leading healthcare data auditing and analytics company, announced today its plans to open a new operations center in Albuquerque, NM on May 1, 2010. With offices in Virginia, Kentucky, Georgia, and Florida, the addition of the New Mexico location will expand the company's ability to service its growing client base nationwide.

"Albuquerque gives us access to a unique clinically-inclined talent pool plus advancements in technological infrastructure foundations to support our growing business needs," said Gary Velasquez, CEO of Outcomes. "Albuquerque's geographical location helps us support our expanding client base."

Kathie Lehner, Vice President of Operations, manages the center and has been working with the Albuquerque Economic Development Department and the Bernalillo County Commission on development plans. Local officials welcome Outcomes to Albuquerque as the new office will immediately create 60 new jobs and could eventually employ 250. "We are excited to see that Outcomes has selected a location and will begin the process of setting up operations in Albuquerque," Mayor Richard J. Berry said. "Outcomes is a perfect fit for Albuquerque and will bring exciting new employment opportunities. I'm pleased that Albuquerque Economic Development is working with the City of Albuquerque to keep our community thriving with new growth."
